Dear Prime Minister,

I am pleased to invite you to the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting 2021, which will take place in Lucerne-Bürgenstock, Switzerland, starting on Tuesday evening 18 May and ending in the evening on Friday 21 May 2021.

This Annual Meeting will be the first opportunity for leaders from government and business to come together again and design a common recovery path and rebuild a more resilient, cohesive and sustainable society. Underpinning it will be the process of the Great Reset, an unprecedented mobilization of actionable ideas from the Forum's action groups, platforms and other initiatives to shape the post-COVID-19 world.

The Forum will limit participation in the event to ensure its community spirit. Participants in Lucerne-Bürgenstock will connect with a network of 400 hubs around the world, providing the opportunity for dialogue with the Forum's Global Shapers and ensuring openness and inclusion. The Annual Meeting will only take place if the Forum can guarantee the health and safety of participants and the host community.

In view of the leading role the Netherlands has taken in steering Europe's recovery efforts and the future of Europe, your perspectives on building the Great Reset at a global level with the international community would be highly appreciated.

The Forum will be in contact with your office to ensure that your participation in the Annual Meeting 2021 is productive.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Prime Minister,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your active participation in the World Economic Forum Davos Agenda, in particular for your contributions to the Transforming Food Systems and Land Use session.

The Forum is grateful for your partnership in the Food Innovations Hub and that the Netherlands will host the Global Coordinating Secretariat. This initiative serves as an excellent example of your country's global leadership in food systems innovation as well as how public-private cooperation is positively impacting the way food is produced and consumed around the world.

I would also like to take this occasion to update you on the World Economic Forum Special Annual Meeting 2021, which will now take place in Singapore from 17 to 20 August 2021. This will be the first global leadership summit in 2021 where leaders from government and business come together again in an atmosphere of trust to design a common recovery path and rebuild a more resilient, cohesive and sustainable society.

The Special Annual Meeting will serve as an important milestone to build on ongoing cooperation in the area of food systems transformation and follow up on the first UN Food Systems Summit to ensure that 2021 remains a key year for innovation in food systems.

The Forum will be in contact with your office to ensure that your participation in the Special Annual Meeting 2021 is of maximum value to you and the Dutch Government.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Prime Minister,

It is my great pleasure to invite you to the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting 2022, which will take place in Davos-Klosters from 17 to 21 January.

It is essential for the world's foremost political, business and civil society leaders to come together once again in order to restore trust in the ability to shape the future in collaborative ways.

Your participation in the Annual Meeting will serve as a unique opportunity to share progress on the recovery plan in the Netherlands, as well as your perspectives on the future of Europe at this crucial time.

The Forum will work closely with your office to ensure that your participation is of the greatest relevance for you and the Netherlands.

I look forward to welcoming you personally in Davos.

Yours sincerely,
